

To my oldest niece
Who's nice and dear,
She's quite the piece
and shows no fear,
With big blue eyes
She looks to the west,
Then up to the skies
To me, she's the best,
Her name is Kim
She is a winner,
It rhymes with my man, Jim
And believe me, she's no sinner,
With her big blue eyes
And all her love,
She looks to the skies
That are up above.
She asks "why did you go?"
We did nothing bad,
We miss you so
And all feel so sad.
Memories to share
That I do cherish,
The love and care
That will never parish.
A few days go past
Still I wonder why,
"Hey! Peace at last!"
However I still cry,
I miss you a bunch
At times I smile,
I remember having lunch
And visiting awhile.

had fun and joy
The times we were together,
It was like getting a new toy
Wishing they both would last forever.
I know I'll feel better
As time goes on,
I am no quitter
I am one you can count upon,
Knowing one day
I'll be with you,
God will come and take me away
And again it will be us + two.
Memories to talk about
Some to keep inside,
I don't want to let them all out
but yet, I have nothing to hide.
I know in my heart
And you do too,
They will never part
The thoughts of me and you.
