

Jess, Tim & Nate, & Travis!

4.25

Hey whatcha families? I heard your guys moved into a new place. Good to hear. I hope you found what you wanted. I think I know what the place looks like from going by Ashleys.

Things been going alright here. I'm glad to hear Travis is back in town. Be sure him and Tim fill out visit forms. They can come see me once Grandma Laura is approved. So I found out the hard way that I'm not supposed to have any contact with minors whatsoever so don't try and bring Alex. I'm under investigation because a letter I sent to Amber had a note in there for Dakota. I guess in my paperwork it said that and I thought it was just Jaidyn. The cellie I have now is going to help me out with the paperwork so I can try at least to get phone contact. Also to send me texts I need your email and you need to go to this website and set up an account jpay.com search for me with my DOC # 350625 or by name.

Set up an account on there and let me know what your id is. I love you guys and hope to hear from you soon. I finally got my info for my case so I can file to see if I can get my sentence reduced. Anyway miss ya tell Amber Happy Mother's day and Happy Mother's day to you to Jess.

Love Your Bro

Harry
